By Metro (underground) and foot

As you exit the Haymarket Metro Station turn left onto Northumberland Street and head towards a pedestrian crossing, go over the crossing and St Thomas' church is straight ahead. Keeping the church and the Civic Centre to your right, follow the pathway northwards until it starts to go uphill and then turn right along another pathway and head past the Hancock pub towards a brown and cream topped wedge shaped building – that's our home Great North House. The entrance is on the far corner of the building.

By road

Head towards the central motorway (A167), take the exit to Tynemouth and the East, stay in the right hand lane and turn right at the lights onto Osborne Terrace, turn right at the roundabout at the end of Osborne Terrace, (pass Archbold Terrace and St George's car parks) bear left at the next roundabout and take the 3rd exit at the small roundabout. Our home Great North House is the brown and cream topped wedge shaped building directly ahead of you.
